SETS CORE VALUES ACTIVITY

By Sanjay and Arvind Seshan

Objectives:

- Following the rules
- Thinking out of the box
- Appreciating everyone's contributions
- Explaining decisions that were made

Before you begin:

- Gather a collection of objects (about 20+ different objects)
- These should be a random set of objects (office supplies, kitchen tools, etc)
- Include a piece of paper and a pen in the set of objects

Notes for the Coach/Team Mentor:

This activity can be completed with just about anything you have around the house or meeting room. Have the team explain their choices at the end.

Out of the box thinking: Did the team classify the pen and paper?

Instructions to print out for the team to read.

In front of you is a set of objects. You have 5 minutes to group the objects into as many sets/groups as possible.

A pen and paper has been provided for you to record your categories.
